To the European Commission
Directorate-General for Research and Innovation

Declaration of Commitment to
"The European Charter for Researchers" and
"The Code of Conduct for the Recruitment of Researchers"

The Academy of Security represented by his General Director Senior Leader Bilbil Mema welcomes and fully supports the recommendations given on the European Charter for Researchers and the Code of Conduct for the Recruitment of Researchers.

The majority of the recommendations of the Charter and the Code are already reflected on the Statute of the Academy of Security and its Research Center. Although the commitment to the Charter and Code will provide additional guidelines of orientation and encourage initiative for further improvement.

By our commitment to the Charter and Code, the Academy of Security hopes to contribute to the general policy objectives of the European research area especially in the field of public security and societal challenges, to bring research, innovation and education closer together, and drive the international competitiveness and sustainable development of European research.

The Academy of Security will disseminate the Charter and the Code to its academic staff, researchers of the Research Center and especially to the recruitment staff for continuous consideration. The endorsement of these very important documents will certainly help us improve our research policies and engage our academy to further commitment to foster international cooperation.

General Director

Senior Leader Bilbil Mema
